1853

Dear David,

The loneliness became so intolerably oppressive to me, that I have run away. I intend to return Wednesday morning, if I have news that you are likely to come by that time. If not, I think I shall stay in Boston, with Jeannie till Thursday morning.

I have left the key with Mr. Bixby, to be delivered to you only.

Your affectionate Mariquita

You will find plenty of provisions.

25

Mr. David Lee Child.

Mass. Newton
1833

L. Maria Child